Bids to Senior Ball Will Sell May 27-June 6

Senior ball bids go on sale tomorrow for seniors only. Other ASB card holders will be able to purchase the dance bids from June 2 through June 6, according to Mrs. Alma Evans of the Graduate Manager's office.

Tickets will be on sale in the Graduate Manager's office and in the Library arch.

Tickets for the ball have been lowered from $3 to $2.50 because, "The senior class plans to cover expenses on the dance," stated Cliff Majersik, former president of the class.

The ball is slated for Saturday, June 7, in the Terrace room of the Fairmont hotel. Students will dance to the music of Buddy King's orchestra from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m., according to Wallace McClymont, publicity director for the dance.

Other tickets to senior activities will be available to seniors from June 2 to June 6, Mrs. Evans said.

Donald Sevrens, senior class co-adviser, stated that each senior who paid his fee is entitled to one free ticket to the senior beach day on June 9, and one free ticket to the senior day at Hearst ranch on June 10.

Seniors also may pick up a free ticket to the Alumni-sponsored senior breakfast at Hawaiian Gardens. The breakfast is scheduled for 9:30 Wednesday, June 11.

Students of previous senior classes usually have met at the Student Union, Mr. Sevrens stated. They probably will congregate there following commencement rehearsal for the day at Hearst ranch, and will meet at noon before attending the beach day.

Any changes will be announced in the Spartan Daily, Mr. Sevrens said.

Panty Raid Echoes

Los Angeles—A move was afoot today to hit panty-raiding male college students where it hurts—their draft status.

A new outbreak of raids hit colleges amidst increasing reports that expulsion from school with its attendant loss of draft deferment would be used against the students.

Band Presents Free Concert Tomorrow in Morris Dailey

The Music department's concert band will present its quarterly band concert tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

The band will be conducted by Robert P. Olson, assistant professor of music. Admission will be free. The program will include a variety of numbers, from Trio, Opus 87, by Beethoven, to a selection from "Carousel" by Richard Rodgers, well known contemporary composer.

A feature of the concert will be the premiere of "El Mariscal Lopez," a symphonic poem for concert band, written by Philip Becker, a graduate music student. Becker presented it to the college faculty in partial fulfillment of his requirements for an M.A.

Music Student David Dunton will be the clarinet soloist in C. M. Weber's Second Concerto for Clarinet. In the Beethoven Trio, which was written for two oboes and English horn, Terrence McCann and Gladys Lange will play oboes, and Wayne Sorenson will play English horn.

Other numbers on the program will be "Music for a Festival," by Gordon Jacob, and "March of the Steel Men," by Belsterling and Alford.

Student Y To Hold All-Faiths Service

Students and faculty are invited to attend a non-denominational service in the Memorial chapel at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to Ann Dench, Student Y worship chairman.

Len Cross, president of the College Religious Council, will be the guest speaker.

ATO Wins Relay Race, KKG Cart Places Second

ATO did it!

The purple pushcart of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity flashed across the finish line a scant five yards in front of the Women's division champ, Kappa Kappa Gamma, to take the grand championship of the Lambda Chi Alpha Pushcart Relays Friday afternoon.

ATOs ran the three block course in 54 seconds. Their driver,

Dick Brauer was presented with the first place trophies by Lambda Chi Crescent Girl Donna Atherton, who also left a large portion of lipstick on his smiling face.

In the most exciting run of the day, ATO finished in front of last year's champions, Pi Kappa Alpha, by less than a third of a pushcart, to win the Men's division championship.

Delta Gamma got their share of trophies and glory by finishing second in the Women's division main event and copping first prize for the most original pushcart, with their circus wagon, complete with lion and tumbling clowns.

The judging for the most original cart was the closest it has ever been. The DGs won by one point over Kappa Alpha's foreign legionnaires.

The 1952 Relays will go down in history as one of the most hotly contested of all. There were more protests lodged this year than ever before. Protests were judged valid by Director of Relays Don Rivinius in two cases and the races were re-run. In the Division "B" main event, KKG was said to have run DG's cart into the crowd, so the race was re-run, with KKG winning again.

Lambda Chi princesses Lois Kirchner and Carolyn King presented the second place trophies to KKG and PiKA, and the original trophy to DG. The judges, Dean of Men Stanley Benz, Chief of Police Ray Blackmore, and San Francisco TV Announcer Lex Boyd, had a difficult job in choosing the most original pushcart, because entries this year were all clever and colorful.

Thousands of screaming Spartans lined the relay course and had to be restrained by motorcycle policemen so that the races could be run.

Pushers and alternate pushers for ATO were Joe Bonfiglio, Bob Baron, Ed Salvadale, Paul Bowen, Gene Goselin, Walt Stover and Raub Butler.

Alpha Chi Omega, last year's Division "B" winner, molded a rocket ship cart and 30 Martians AChOs followed it. Sigma Pi's bathtub entry, with water, shower and bath, gained favorable comment from the crowd.

Sigma Nu bid for the originality award with a Scotch bottle cart, and kilted pushers playing bagpipes.

Contest Begins To Pick SJS's 'Ugliest' Man

The ugliest man on campus will be determined June 2 when final results of the Rally committee's second annual Ugly Man contest are tallied.

Deadline for entries in the contest is noon tomorrow. Entry blanks should be placed in the Rally committee box in the Student Union. Blanks may be picked up near the door of the ASB office in the Student Union.

Any male student, faculty member or college employee, with his permission, is eligible.

All organizations and departments may sponsor an entrant. Organizations may co-sponsor an entrant if they wish.

Proceeds of the penny-a-vote contest will go toward furnishing the Memorial Chapel.

Winner of last year's title was Coy Staggs, who was sponsored by Delta Gamma and Phi Sigma Kappa.

Voting will begin at noon tomorrow and will last until Monday, June 2. A booth in the outer quad will be set up, according to Jody Ford, chairman of the contest.

Inspector Praises 'Wonderful Spirit' Of College ROTC

"The SJS Military Police ROTC program pleased me in every way," declared Col. Milton Heilfron, head of the MP inspection team which observed all phases of Sparta's ground ROTC program Thursday and Friday. Col. Heilfron's team is one of two air and MP groups that have inspected training methods, facilities and administrative details.

The team commander stated that he was highly impressed by the wonderful spirit of the ROTC units. The instruction quality was of the highest order, he said.

Friday's ROTC festivities culminated with a formal review of both Air and MP units by the inspection teams.

"The review was outstanding," observed Col. Heilfron. "The students did a nice job, and it is obvious that the advanced course personnel have taken hold of command in a superior manner."

Colonel Heilfron emphasized that there is no comparative rating for college and university ROTC units. They are rated either satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

"The SJS program will most certainly be recommended by me as satisfactory to my headquarters in San Francisco," he stated.

Assisting him in his inspection of the SJS program was Lt. Col. Roy C. Evans, of the U. S. Army Military Police.

Today's Weather

Since the week-end weather melted the dial off our Captain Marvel ring-barometer, not much in the way of a weather report is forthcoming today. We could gaze into our crystal ball, but we are using it for bowling this week and don't want to take it out of the bag. Also, it must sound pretty damned silly, reading this column in the first person plural, but that's the newspaper game for you. Some day it's justified by our split personality. Hotter and hotter today?

Abolish 'Unwritten Law'

Spartan fraternities and sororities could gain national esteem and recognition by playing a major role in the elimination of "the unwritten law" on racial prejudice.

A step in the right direction was taken recently at the Big Ten IFC conference at the University of Wisconsin when an active plan for destroying prejudice was adopted. Under the plan, the Big Ten IFC will contact all Mid-western national and local fraternities to foster the abolition of "passive prejudice."

Success of the plan would eliminate judgment of potential pledges on a racial or religious basis and allow for choice of members on an individual basis.

Adoption and active practice of a similar plan here would be a major contribution toward the increased respect of fraternities and sororities and the improvement of individual attitudes.

Mosquito Control Taxes Scientists' Knowledge

By BARBARA RILEY

Out of 1200 species of mosquitoes in the world, only eight species are controlled, according to Dr. J. Gordon Edwards, instructor in biology.

Not only are these insects carriers of malaria and hookworm disease, but they are also vectors of several strains of encephalitis and virus diseases which are anywhere from 50 to 90 percent fatal. Most of these diseases have no cure.

Because of a fear of epidemics spread by mosquitoes, California now has a Mosquito Abatement act, which was passed in 1950 and which set up 41 Mosquito abatement districts throughout the state. Many of these districts, including those of Monterey, Marysville and Indio, are staffed by S.J.S. graduates.

Edgar A. Smith, former student and present head of the Merced county Mosquito Abatement district, explained to Entomology club members last week that even the eight strains now controlled are quickly getting out of hand.

In the Bakersfield area, Mr. Smith said, you can no longer kill mosquitoes with DDT or Lindane. Heptachlor will poison them, but since 1945 the mosquitoes in that district have increased their resistance to Heptachlor 1100 times. This means that 1100 times more fluid must be used, Dr. Edwards explained.

Two or three generations of mosquitoes can build up a resistance to a poison, Dr. Edwards said.

To combat insects and disease in other countries, more than 800 entomologists now are being sought by the UN-sponsored World Health organization, according to Mr. Smith, who quoted Dr. Louis Williams, liaison officer between the U. S. Department of Public Health and the WHO.

Dr. Carl Duncan, head of the department of Natural Sciences, commented that increased travel between countries had heightened the world health problem.

Health work in foreign countries is a large "potential field for properly-trained college graduates," Dr. Duncan said.

Revelries Reunion Features Record Of '52 Production

A play-back of a tape recording of "Kiss Me Hello," Spartan Revelries of '52, will be featured at the Revelries reunion tomorrow night at 7 o'clock in the Student Union, according to Norma Welsh, chairman of the affair.

The reunion, open to everyone who was connected with the production, was made possible through an ASB appropriation.

Revelries personnel also will have an opportunity to order pictures from those taken during staging of the show, which was hailed as one of the most successful Revelries presented during the 20-year history of the production.

Sparta Blanked Twice by Fresno

By GEORGE NALE

Coach Walt Williams' hot and cold Spartan nine put up a good fight against NCAA playoff headed Fresno State in games at Municipal stadium Friday night and Saturday afternoon but their impotent bats cost them both games, 6-0 and 2-0.

Pitchers Johnny Oldham and Clair Parkin worked the two games in that order for the Spartans to conclude the season for the locals.

Oldham turned in a creditable performance in Friday's game but was not up to his usual par. He gave up 10 hits to the Bulldogs, walked seven and hit two men. He struck out nine men to hold Fresno back somewhat but they still emerged the victors by a score of 6-0, the first shut-out of the Spartans this season.

Catcher Bob Poole was the only Golden Raider to hit the ball in the first game. He made it two for three as he singled in the fifth and eighth innings off the second Fresno hurler, Larry Bolger. Truman Clevenger, their starting pitcher, was relieved after four innings by Coach Pete Beiden to give the other moundsmen a chance to work.

Bob Donkersley was the top sticker for the Bulldogs with two hits in three times at the plate. One of his hits was a 420 foot homer while the other was a single.

Parkin did a magnificent job on the mound for the locals but two hits and a walk in the 10th inning gave the Bulldogs a 2-0 victory.

The quiet bespectacled Spartan ace gave up five hits in the first nine innings, three of them being borderline cases. He fanned 15 men and walked only three but the one walk, two hit combination in the Bulldog tenth cost him the verdict.

A fast ball and a tricky cross-fire were the pitches Parkin relied upon with such success until the tenth. The loss gave him a 4-4 win-loss record for the year.

The Bulldogs got their two runs in the tenth when Fran Oneta received a base on balls from Parkin. Bob Bennet then popped out but Jerry Bishop sacrificed Oneta on to second.

Fibber Hirayama, a Bulldog sparkplug, had two strikes on him when he belted a double to left center to score Oneta. Hirayama scored on a single by Don George.

Spartan pinch-hitter Doug Boehner started the locals' 10th inning with a Texas Leaguer which Harvey Zenimura barely missed getting with a diving catch. Parkin hit a liner to left field but the Bulldog shortstop leaped into the air to cut it off. Cookie Camara flied out and Milt Manoukian fanned to end the game.

The Spartans hit a little better in the Saturday game than they had the day before. They collected five hits off the three Fresno hurlers, Willis Warren and Bishop.

Boehner with his pinch-hit Texas Leaguer led the Spartans with one for one at the plate. Also hitting the Fresno pitchers were Parkin with one for three, Ralph Graves with one for three, Dick Brady with one for four and Bob Poole with one for four.

The two losses to Fresno ended the Spartan baseball season with a 13 win, 13 loss record plus two ties. The Spartans started off strong during the early part of the season when they won six consecutive games after having lost two.

JOE BONFIGLIO

Strong pitching kept the Spartans going as they failed to find the range except for a few eruptions when they went wild against teams like Stanford and San Francisco State.

Fresno State's Bulldogs enter the National Collegiate Athletic association playoffs today and are rated a good chance to win. They won 29 and lost nine during the regular season.

Stanley Wins

Local pentathlon competition ended Friday with Lang Stanley, sophomore half-miler, winning the five event program.

Stanley amassed 402 points by running the 100-yard dash in 10.6, tossing the shot 28' 10", high jumping 5' 10", broad jumping 20' 2" and running the 880 in 1:54.6.

Tied for second were Bill Pridy, pole vaulter, and Don Gillespie, hurdler, with 393 points.

The novice division was won by Lloyd Neutz with 370 points.

Grid Schedule Rough; Broncs Will Be Tough

By WALT ROESSING

Football season will be here before you know it!

In less than four months the Golden Raiders will open their grid season at Boulder, Colo., against the University of Colorado. The date of the initial fall contest is Sept. 20.

The rest of the schedule finds the locals meeting San Diego State there the night of Sept. 27; Arizona State at Tempe the evening of Oct. 4; Fresno State here under the arcs Oct. 10; College of Pacific at Stockton under the stars on Oct. 18; Oct. 25 open; Stanford there Nov. 1; Brigham Young university at Spartan stadium the evening of Nov. 7; Pepperdine here under the lights Nov. 14; and Santa Clara on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27.

The Broncos will have a football squad which will contain depth for the first time since Dick Gallagher's been coaching at the institution. The head mentor is expecting 18 seniors to form the nucleus of the team this year.

The Santa Clara eleven will have flashy backs, all-around line speed and topnotch receivers. It will lack hard hitting fullbacks and seasoned passers.

Gallagher's men will employ the T-formation once again this year. Two fast darting halfbacks, Billy Gil and Jack Kaplan, will spearhead the Bronco threat. Joe McCarger will handle the fullback spot, although weighing only 175 pounds. At quarter will be two inexperienced men who did not see very much action during the last campaign. They are Joe Clark and Duane Louis.

At one of the end spots the Broncos will have a potential All-American in Gern Nagler. Nagler will play safety on defense and will attempt to haul in a few more passes this season than last, when Johnny Pasco missed him time and again in the clear.

Another lineman who is expected to be a standout on both offense and defense for the Santa Clarans is Tackle Ken Mirch, who was ineligible last year. Mirch was a bulwark at tackle as a sopho-

Shield Pledges Constructing Addition to New Lath House

Pledges of Spartan Shields, sophomore men's honor organization, now are constructing an addition to the biology lath house, which was built early this quarter for horticulture and gardening classes.

Two weeks after the original structure was built, "we were stepping on plants because of lack of space," Rocco Pisano, instructor in biology, said. When Spartan Shields sent out requests for jobs for its pledges, Mr. Pisano suggested that they construct the addition.

Pledges building the lath house are: Sam Yates, pledge president; John Freitas, Paul Sakamoto, Alex Stepanovich, Lee Sweeney, Art Lund, Tom Brown, Dick Kissick, Dick Zimmerman, Jay Flood, Art Peterson, George Erhart, Slim Hodgen, Rod Kolze, Howard Allen, Ron Thieman, Don Sholte and Bob Beth.

Spartan Shield officers are: Dave Doerr, president; Fred Grasse, vice-president; Larry Ehle, secretary; Ted Labrenz, treasurer; and Lon Polk, corresponding secretary.

WAA Swim Team Loses in Tourney With Mills College

San Jose State's WAA swimming team was on the losing end of the stick in a recent meet with Mills college, according to Sandy Waller, publicity chairman for the organization.

The tennis matches with San Francisco State were more successful, however, Mae Stadler and Joan Chambers won the first doubles with scores of 6-3 and 6-0. Carol Nu Dyke and Nancy Tuck also were winners in the second doubles, 6-2 and 6-0. Losers in the singles were Phyllis Roberts and Billy Herring.

The five students participating in the swimming events were Ann Younger, Beverly Babka, Nita Ruck, manager of the team, Alicia Ench and Wendy Bess. They competed with 12 Mills students.

But when I aim for better taste,
I smoke a Lucky Strike!
